Choral Composition Competition Committee
St. Thomas's Anglican Church
Toronto, Canada

Dear members of the committee,

It is an honor to submit my application for the Choral Composition Competition in celebration of the Sesquicentennial of St. Thomas's Anglican Church. My name is Allan Ulises Zepeda Ibarra, a multi-instrumentalist musician and instrument maker with a strong background in both traditional Mexican music and contemporary musical creation.

I began my formal studies at the Centro de Educación Artística Luis Spota Saavedra, where I developed a deep understanding of musical interpretation and theory. Later, I completed diplomas in Musical Ensembles and Arranging through the General Sub-Directorate of Education and Artistic Research at the National Institute of Fine Arts (INBA). Throughout my career, I have had the privilege of studying with renowned mentors such as Cándido Cruz, Álvaro Avitia, Gilberto Gutiérrez Silva, Héctor Sánchez Campero, José Garza Santos, and Miguel Arismendi.

Currently, I am pursuing a Bachelor's degree in Composition, Production, and Music Management at Andrew Bell College in Córdoba, Veracruz, Mexico. This has allowed me to broaden my creative horizons in choral composition, exploring new ways to merge tradition and modern musical expression.

The opportunity to participate in this competition represents a unique occasion for me to contribute with a work that reflects both my artistic journey and my passion for choral music. I am confident that my approach, shaped by my cultural roots and current studies, can offer a fresh perspective to the celebration of this important milestone in the history of St. Thomas's Anglican Church.

Thank you in advance for considering my application. I am at your disposal for any further information you may require.

Sincerely,
Allan Ulises Zepeda Ibarra
